Dear Wing Commander,

1. I am writing to convey my sincere appreciation for exceptional contribution made by you and your team in swift provisioning of LMs and providing realistic operational and technical training of the user units which has positively contributed towards enhancing operational efficiency of the formation.

2. The dedication demonstrated by each member of your team reflects not only your professional capabilities but also profound sense of nationalism in each member of your team. I recognize your team's ability to adapt to the ever evolving operational necessities of the user units and to provide innovative and real-time solutions within overall framework of operational capability enhancement of the formation.
